

ACQS WORKSHOP 2010:
An Introduction to Québec Studies

Sponsored by the American Council for Québec Studies and the USC Center for International Studies

Friday, February 5, 2010
University of Southern California
Social Sciences Building, Room B40

10:00am to 12:00pm -- Morning session

Welcome

Patrick James, University of Southern California

The importance and relevance of Québec and North American Francophone Studies

Patrick Coleman, University of California Los Angeles

Québec Studies in the U.S.: The American Council for Québec Studies

Raymond Pelletier, University of Maine and Executive Director of ACQS

Québec Studies worldwide: the Association Internationale des Études Québécoises

Jocelyn Létourneau, Université Laval

Funding opportunities for Québec Studies

Yanick Godbout, Délégation du Québec à Los Angeles

12:00-1:00pm -- Lunch

1:00pm to 5:00pm -- Afternoon session

Panel discussion of the impact of the Quiet Revolution and Contemporary Québec Society

Patrick James, University of Southern California

Patrick Coleman, University of California Los Angeles

Jocelyn Létourneau, Université Laval

2:30pm -- Break

2:45pm An introduction to the sports idol: Roch Carrier's "Hockey Sweater"

Raymond Pelletier, University of Maine and Executive Director of ACQS

3:00pm Viewing of "The Rocket", a film by Charles Binamé

4:30pm Discussion of the film with a member of the cast or the production staff

5:15pm – Québec government Reception

For more information, please email Indira Persad at persad@usc.edu